

CALLED TO ADVENTURE

Dominican High School
2026 Summer Camps

A SUMMER TO REMEMBER

Whether it's team-based challenges, hands-on STEM activities or exploring creative passions through theatre, arts, and crafts, Dominican High School's Summer Camps have something for everyone – and we're back for another year with even more to engage, educate, and inspire. In addition to our staple camps – Dominican Jr. Knights Summer Sports Camps and Dominican Theatre Camp – this summer, we are excited to announce the addition of two new sessions to our Summer Activity Camp, including sports and fun and a chance to explore new foods!

EACH CAMPER WILL ATTEND THE FOLLOWING SESSIONS:

GAME ON! SPORTS AND FUN

Campers will participate in a variety of sports, games, and team-based challenges.
Led by Dakota Prozanski, St. Eugene Catholic School Phys. Ed. Teacher.

FUN WITH FOOD

Campers will have fun tasting, making, and exploring new foods!
Led by Dominican French Teacher, Kathleen Whitworth.

STEM AND CRITICAL THINKING

Campers will engage with a variety of hands-on STEM fields such as robotics, engineering, and mechanics, challenging them to consider how and why machines do what they do.
Led by Dominican Science Teacher, Brandon Rindfleisch.

ART AND CREATIVITY

From painting and drawing, to a variety of other creative media, this session invites students to take their creative ideas and apply them to real world situations.
Led by Dominican Art Teacher, Tracy Federwitz.

THE MAGIC OF STORYTELLING

In addition to exploring many new stories, we use a variety of prompts to open the door of the imagination to explore the creation of a story.
Led by Adela Luna '19, St. Robert Catholic School 2nd Grade Teacher.
